The Brunswick is a bright, spacious, and unique design that'll have you (and your mates!) living your best lives. The central living zone provides an entertaining space with a open plan living/dining area that flows onto a generous alfresco. Whatever the weather, your social life is sorted with this smooth indoor/outdoor living design - you're welcome! The galley style kitchen is next level with heaps of bench space and a convenient breaky bar. It even has a larder - fancy, right? Concealed cleverly behind the kitchen is the minor bedroom zone featuring 2 rooms and a dedicated full-size bathroom. Don't need two bedrooms? Maybe a music studio? Home gym? Change it up to suit your needs, this is your space. Ready for some lowkey scrolling time? Head to your super roomy master suite at the front of the home featuring a huge walk-in robe and an ensuite, to spend some lazy chill time before lights out.*Easystart Homes is not the owner of the land.
