Defined by perfect proportions, superb sunlight, and spectacular outlooks, this impeccably presented home offers scenic and affordable penthouse living in the heart of Essendon's café and lifestyle precinct. Affording an instant impression, a lengthy hallway teases the home's standout dimensions, with a pair of bright bedrooms accompanied by excellent robe storage, a luxe main bathroom, master ensuite, and direct access to a tranquil terrace spanning the home's entire length. A sublime space to spend quiet nights in and summer evenings among friends, a substantial, open-plan living/meals section steps onto a peaceful outdoor setting, with remarkable panorama headlined by Melbourne's inspiring skyline. Furthering the home's entertaining credentials, a stone-top kitchen features a Fisher & Paykel oven and gas top, stainless-steel dishwasher, plentiful cabinetry, and an extensive island with breakfast bar seating for several.

- Pristine penthouse with city panorama, superb space, and all-day sunlight
- Two spacious bedrooms joined by excellent robe storage and two smart bathrooms
- Open-plan living/dining stepping onto a residence-length entertaining terrace
- Enthusiast's kitchen with upscale appliances, ample storage, and stone surfaces
- Steps from city trains and trams, shopping/lifestyle precincts, and peaceful parks

A wonderfully airy and stunningly spacious residence with some of the finest views Moonee Valley has to offer, features include intercom access, ducted heating and cooling, a European laundry, and garage space with storage cage. With only 21 residences to the complex and city-bound trams at the building's doorstep, it's a matter of steps from flourishing Rose Street and North Essendon Villages, Napier Street restaurants, Lincoln Park farmers markets, and Essendon Station, with acclaimed public and private schools, CityLink, DFO, and the Maribyrnong River close by.
