Not into renovating and lead a busy life, or just looking for a modern, well-maintained, and located property to invest in? This fabulous listing has everything first home buyers to families and speculators could want. Enjoying a sunny elevated aspect, it also offers great level access to the finely-presented home and manicured and easy-care, fully-fenced family-friendly front and back yards. The delightful home has been well-positioned on the lot to allow for an extra wide and high double garage, which has workshop space and convenient drive-thru access to the rear yard, which has a handy garden shed and is very private. The home has a pleasant flow and relaxed ambiance throughout. The kitchen in the spacious contemporary open living and dining zone has been totally renovated. Feature benchtops, quality cooking appliances including a 900mm oven, and fabulous storage and work space will surely get the creative juices flowing. Entertain in style here, or head for the under eaves alfresco, which could be easily enclosed, if desired. The kids can catch a movie in the media room, or you can enjoy family movie nights together. The adults' domain features a chic plantation shutter master bedroom, with a superb walk-in robe and separate toilet ensuite. There is excellent storage in the rear family wing bedrooms, hall and laundry located near the modern bathroom. Get in quick for this gem. It is sure to attract keen interest.
