This three bedroom double-fronted brick residence is nestled in a peaceful court setting with parklands just across the road. As you enter the house you will step into a sun-drenched and spacious living area boasting a raked ceiling with attractive timber panelling. The kitchen features a convenient breakfast bar, ample storage including a large pantry, and a delightful garden outlook. Adjacent is a well-sized meals area and a sunny second living room. The master bedroom is complete with an ensuite and generous walk-in robe, while two additional bedrooms each feature built-in robes. The main bathroom offers both a large shower and a bath. Step outside to discover an expansive back garden wrapping around the rear of the home. Offering a neat lawn, established plants and ample space promising huge potential for gardening enthusiasts. Additional highlights include a double garage, separate laundry with a large linen cupboard, evaporative cooling, Rinnai gas wall heater, automatic sprinkler system, clothesline and garden shed. Conveniently located just over 1km from Corowa's main street, and a similar distance to medical amenities, schools, and parks, this home ticks off both comfort and convenience.
