Buyers Guide $2.3m

This is family living at its very finest with a spacious domain featuring impressive proportions, light-filled living areas and relaxed poolside entertainment zones. Nestled onto a super-sized 682sqm block in one of Canterbury's most sought-after cul-de-sacs, it offers a wonderfully private retreat with a flowing two-storey design that provides a fantastic place for indoor-outdoor living. A peaceful sanctuary is the result in a highly desirable neighbourhood with the vast expanse of Hughes Park at the end of the street, and Earlwood's shopping, dining and café strip just a five-minute drive away. Beautifully presented, well-appointed and immaculately maintained - Generously sized rooms with living spaces for formal and casual events - Inground saltwater swimming pool, spa and poolside patio with Bali hut - A spacious and private backyard with established gardens and level lawn - Five bedrooms are all on the upper level and all have built-in wardrobes - Three stylish bathrooms with ensuite to main bedroom - A versatile layout featuring a downstairs home office or sixth bedroom - Double lock-up garage with workshop space and handy internal access - Cosy fireplace in family room, internal laundry with dual access
