Showcasing unique charisma and warmth, this delightful home is tucked away with neat street appeal and is conveniently positioned within walking distance to schools, shops and the vibrant amenities that the Mount Evelyn township has to offer, as well as boasting a functional floorplan with family proportions. Greeted by almost 1105m² (approx.), of manicured gardens, that complement the style of the home, the interior feels at once inviting. Boasting a beautiful ensemble of spaces filled with natural light, infused with character- an inspiring blend of modern comforts and conveniences coupled with heart-warming characteristics that make this home uniquely beautiful. Multiple living areas provide ample space to relax and entertain. The two separate zones along with a casual open-plan family/meals and formal dining area assure plenty of options, and the second living area has easy connectivity to an outdoor undercover decked alfresco area with café blinds, making it perfect for year-round outdoor living. The kitchen is centrally located, accommodating beautifully for family or guests. Well-equipped, featuring easy care white cabinetry, free standing electric cook top and oven plus plenty of bench and preparation space. When rest and relaxation is sought, the master retreat will not disappoint, comprising robe and a full ensuite. Three additional bedrooms share the main bathroom, with shower, bathtub and separate toilet. This home continues to impress with inclusions such as; gas heating, split system air-conditioning, and ceiling fans. Outside is just as detailed as the interior and behind the remote gates, includes highlights such as 16 solar panels, work shop, double garage, and studio plus ample off street parking. Spacious, homely yet stylish and designed to cope with a busy family life, this character home perfectly encapsulates a back drop perfect for raising a young family.
