Beyond the immaculate front garden and striking facade, this Trillium home is set to deliver an amazing family lifestyle thanks to its flexible floorplan, genuine touch of class and terrific living/entertaining spaces both inside and out. Filled with natural light, the interior welcomes you with a wonderfully wide entrance hallway, along with 4 bedrooms (large master with WIR and double-vanity ensuite), stylish main bathroom and separate powder room. Adaptable to your every need, the home also includes a study/retreat, dedicated theatre room and vast open-plan living/dining area serviced by a stone-top kitchen with grand island breakfast bar, dual ovens, dishwasher and walk-in pantry. Creature comforts include ducted heating and evaporative cooling, along with an alarm system, integrated audio speakers, high ceilings, large laundry and plentiful storage. Cornerless bi-fold doors seamlessly connect the living area and alfresco entertaining deck complete with built-in BBQ, bench seating and black-mesh cafe blinds, plus a wide backyard with high hedges for privacy and oversized double garage with internal entry. Walking distance to Central Park and the bus stop on Highlander Drive, it's also close to Club Trillium, as well as easy access to the area's popular schools and Craigieburn Village Shopping Centre.
