Sitting pretty amidst picturesque gardens, this character filled two bedroom period home whilst instantly enjoyable also offers exciting scope for contemporary enhancement (subject to council approval). Enhancing appeal is its sizeable backyard and large garage including two room studio which is ideal for working from home. Accessed via ROW and private driveway offering extra off street parking space. Adorned with leadlight aspects, high ceilings, rosettes and plate rails, captivating interiors include inviting entrance hall and spacious living room with fireplace, polished Baltic pine floorboards and French doors to a sun-filled study. A compact kitchen with modern cooker, adjoining dining room, two charming bedrooms and classic bathroom complete this potential-packed package. Further updates include built-in-robos, gas log heater and split-system air conditioner. In a prized location, enjoy the culinary delights of Sydney Road shops, cafés, the ease of city-bound trams and trains, and proximity to schools and parks.
