Perfectly positioned in a very popular enclave of the Narara estate sits this magnificent, spacious, single-level family home. With massive street appeal, a quiet, peaceful street, and being set on a sun-drenched, massive 1012m² parcel of land, this is truly a rare find in this location. Perfect for the largest of families, with five bedrooms and multiple living and entertaining areas, your days will be spent enjoying the complete package that this property offers. Thoughtfully designed with soaring raked ceilings through the middle hub of the home – kitchen, dining room, and family room creating a soft ambience with space and natural light, this beautifully maintained residence is simply warm and welcoming both inside and out. Showcasing a functional, free-flowing floorplan, generously proportioned (and well-positioned) bedrooms rolling through to multiple living and entertaining zones, spilling seamlessly at various points out to an expansive wrap-around covered alfresco area, sparkling resort-style pool, landscaped gardens and fruit trees, and a grassy, fully fenced rear yard. This is a sensational opportunity for larger families and those who love to entertain in beautiful surroundings. Backing onto a natural reserve and parklands, it is also within an easy walk to the very popular St. Phillips Christian School. Simply a must to see!
