This attractively renovated and modernised character cottage captures the essence of easy urban style. The gorgeous freestanding home has been cleverly designed to provide a fresh and contemporary living space with a flowing layout and private garden sanctuary that go together to provide a fantastic in/outdoor environment. It's also perfectly positioned with Marketplace and Norton Street shops, cafes and wine bars just a short stroll away. Classically presented facade with lots of traditional character. Light and airy interiors feature open style lounge & dining areas. An easy level flow to a leafy garden oasis and alfresco deck. High-end cabinetry, bespoke shelving, timber floors, French doors. Sleek modern kitchen equipped with chic stainless-steel fittings. All bedrooms have custom built-ins, upstairs main has an ensuite. Plantation shutters, air-conditioning and a large attic storeroom. A wide tree-lined street with all-day parking and minimal traffic.
