Here lies a rare opportunity for the enthusiastic renovator, nestled on a generous 1136m² allotment close to the waterfront. This property beckons those ready to roll up their sleeves and breathe new life into a once-cute cottage. With good bones and ample potential, this home is a canvas waiting for your creative touch. Comprising a double garage and plenty of space for additional shedding, there's room to enhance and expand. The garden, though in need of tidying, presents the perfect setting for outdoor enjoyment. Located in a unique island setting, this property offers a blend of holiday getaway appeal and potential for permanent living. Embrace the abundance of wildlife, including koalas, and the myriad birdlife that call this place home. Enjoy all the Gippsland Lakes have to offer, from fishing and swimming to paddling in serene waters. Don't miss the chance to witness playful dolphins in the lake, adding to the magic of this location. A jetty berth is included in the package. Seize this opportunity to transform this property into a picturesque retreat, ideal for holiday escapes or year round living.
