Auction Location: On-Site Welcome to 21 Frederick Street, Ferntree Gully – a harmonious fusion of space, style, and serene suburban living. Step inside this generous 1,715 m² property and find yourself charmed by its meticulous design and modern luxuries, perfect for the growing family or discerning entertainer. Boasting three plush bedrooms, each a tranquil retreat, this home ensures personal space for all. The master suite, a true haven on the upper level, offers a spacious sanctuary complemented by a lavish ensuite with a spa bath, and an expansive walk-in robe. For those requiring versatility, the adjacent retreat area provides the perfect opportunity to establish a fourth bedroom or study, aligning with your lifestyle needs. Elegant floorboards grace the kitchen and dining areas, leading you through a fully renovated culinary space. Here, stone benchtops, a glass splashback, and stainless steel appliances beckon the gourmet enthusiast, whilst the adjoining meals area forms the heart of the home – a space for family feasts and cherished conversations. Descending to the lower level, find two additional bedrooms, well-serviced by the main bathroom, each offering ample space for a study or home office setup. A bonus study room on the ground floor adds to the appeal, ensuring work-from-home or academic pursuits are catered for with ease. The indulgences extend beyond the interior, with a balcony for morning coffees, a covered pergola area perfect for weekend relaxation. The remote double garage provides not only secure parking but also internal access, while additional carport space with a shed, side gates for boat or caravan access, and abundant under-house storage tackle all your practical needs. For moments of solitude or creative endeavours, the secluded single-bedroom bungalow at the rear of the block is a versatile addition, perfect as a teenage retreat, storeroom, or artist's studio. Positioned amid the lush environs of Ferntree Gully, with walking tracks to the Dandenong Ranges National Park at your doorstep, this residence also places you within easy reach of local schools, shops, and the Ferntree Gully Station. Experience the balance of nature and neighbourhood at 21 Frederick Street – a place not just to live, but to thrive.
