In a wonderfully convenient location within easy reach of every imaginable amenity, this charming colonial family home offers a series of light filled living spaces. Gracing a coveted position within a celebrated Heritage-built streetscape of the historic Mort Estate. A traditional picket fence along with an attractive exterior façade, set the tone for the beautifully incorporated modern style with rich period character features within. It would be hard to find a location more conducive to lifestyle enjoyment. Steeped in tradition, with leadlight windows, polished floors, high ceilings, VJ walls, and fretwork, the home's heart is an informal open-plan kitchen/dining room with effortless flow to a deck that basks in natural sunlight. Meanwhile, a separate lounge is warmed by an ambient wood heater. The four bedrooms are carpeted and are a good size. The master bedroom is zoned at the front of the home and has a walk-through robe and ensuite. Each of the remaining three bedrooms each share access to the modern family bathroom complete with a bath independent to the shower. At the rear of the home is an expansive covered outdoor entertaining area perfect for the afternoon BBQ. Relax and entertain here with family and friends with plenty of room for the kids to play in the fully fenced back yard.
