This spacious family home is perfectly situated on a well-established and highly desirable street, offering a plethora of features that cater to your utmost comfort. With 4 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms, including a main bathroom with an atrium, there is abundant space for the entire family. Delight in the presence of two living spaces, with the second area thoughtfully designed as a dedicated kids zone, granting them their own special domain. The main living room exudes warmth and charm with a captivating fireplace, allowing each member of the family to relish in their own personal space. Prepare to be amazed by the expansive kitchen, seamlessly connected to both living spaces, the dining area, and a delightful south-facing patio. This effortless flow creates the perfect setting for entertaining guests. Nestled on a generous 3,000 m² block, the outdoor possibilities are boundless, providing ample space for various outdoor activities. Furthermore, a single bay shed is at your disposal to meet all your storage needs. While the property may exhibit some signs of age and require a little tender loving care, it presents an exceptional opportunity for potential capital growth for the discerning buyer who recognizes its true potential. Embrace the chance to transform this gem into your dream home.
