New to Market

Situated just around the corner from Canterbury College is this replica red brick cottage with tenants already in place till February 2025 at $490 per week. This lovely residence offers absolute character and charm and is a perfect ideal starter home or investment property. Inside · 3 good size bedrooms with ensuite and walk through robe off the master bedroom · Reverse cycle 2-zone ducted air conditioning · 9 ft elevated ceilings throughout · Gas cooktop in the spacious kitchen · Open plan living areas from the kitchen · Separate laundry with internal access from the patio · Outside · Under cover patio area · 2 x sheds · Completely landscaped front & rear yard. This home is available now & offers very comfortable living and is situated just around the corner from the Woolworths Holmview and Aldi and only a short drive to the Edens Landing train station and access to the M1 and Logan Motorway has never been easier. The photos used are shown prior to the tenants occupying the property and gardens now matured and fully established as well. Private Inspections are strictly by appointment only as the property is tenanted and prior notice is necessary for all inspections.
