Presenting an unrivalled opportunity to secure yourself an excellent piece of real estate, lies this fantastic single-level residence. Nicely tucked away within a quiet street, yet without sacrificing the ultimate convenience of being a short stroll away from all amenities such as stunning beaches, local shops, medical centre and restaurants, this home ticks all of the boxes for anyone searching for the ideal property in the heart of Salamander Bay. Sitting on a 531m² level block of land, this home holds three bedrooms of accommodation, all containing built in wardrobes as well as the main including an ensuite. You will adore the multiple living areas on offer, allowing for a necessary quiet space throughout the home. Spend all of your time entertaining family and friends within the neat and tidy open plan kitchen, dining and living areas. Take advantage of the undercover entertaining area leading you through to the low maintenance gardens. You will enjoy the convenience of a double lock up garage as well as an additional single carport to store all of your vehicles, and any extra belongings. Utilise the ability to leave the car at home and walk to the fantastic Wanda Beach, and Salamander Shopping Village containing great local cafes, restaurants, and boutique shopping. Properties in this area do not last long, so you must contact Rebecca Dean 0421 169 922 or Regan Blanch 0481 996 678 for any further information.
