Conveniently located in central South Shepparton, this charming weatherboard home presents an ideal opportunity for first-time buyers or savvy renovators/investors. Close to major shopping precincts and within easy reach of all major schools, it also offers proximity to the lake, perfect for leisurely walks and family gatherings. Featuring three well-proportioned bedrooms, a bathroom, a living room, and a spacious kitchen, the home also boasts a brand-new stove for added convenience. Structurally sound, it retains its original period charm, offering a blank canvas for personalization and renovation.
