Embrace the allure of serene lakeside living with this charming property nestled by the picturesque Lake Callide. If you're someone who relishes the idea of a renovation project while revelling in the beauty of nature, then this could be your perfect match. This highset home presents a unique opportunity to create your dream abode. With 3 bedrooms, the kitchen, bathroom, lounge and dining located upstairs, there's ample space for your creative vision to unfold. Imagine waking up to the gentle glisten of the water and stepping onto a full-length veranda that frames the captivating views. Downstairs features a rumpus room, bar area, laundry, 2nd toilet and double garage which provides flexibility for crafting additional living spaces or entertainment areas. While the property calls for some renovation work, it's important to note that this is your chance to put your personal touch on a canvas that's already infused with natural beauty. The location itself is a testament to the lifestyle possibilities it offers that will reward you with a lifestyle that celebrates the great outdoors. The charm of our Callide Dam coupled with the potential of this residence creates a unique proposition that calls for an inspection.
