Privately nestled in one of the Eastern Shore's most sought-after suburbs, breathtaking in scale with sweeping panoramic mountain & city views, this remarkable home will instantly win your heart. On arrival it is clear this spectacular property is something special, from the wonderful street appeal to the spectacular layout and grand scale of the home. Rarely does an opportunity present itself to acquire such a substantial family home with four spacious bedrooms, a study, three living areas and three bathrooms. The space is seemingly endless, and options are plenty. Beyond the façade of traditional brick is a relaxing and inviting interior with nothing more to do than move in and enjoy the home and all the space it offers. Offering multiple living, dining and entertaining areas across three spacious levels, a flowing layout showcasing generous proportions throughout, lots of natural light and all-day sun, this well presented and large home caters for all aspects of family life. This substantial home not only offers complete family living on the upper levels, but the lower level is also perfect for teenagers or extended family seeking their own space. As you step through the front door and into the impressive foyer, you will be drawn to the large open plan living, dining and kitchen area which offers some of the most spectacular views you will see from the Eastern Shore. There is also access onto the deck, where you can continue to take in the stunning views on offer and a light filled formal living area, which is the perfect spot to relax in. On this main level, there are also two spacious bedrooms featuring beautiful bay windows and built in robes, an office, a family bathroom and laundry. There is also internal access to the double garage. The upper level offers complete comfort and privacy in the parents retreat which includes a large walk-in robe and ensuite with spa bath. Downstairs there is a large self-contained living area with kitchenette, bedroom and ensuite. The lower level with its own entrance is the perfect set up for separate living ideal for teenagers, guests or large family living. Situated just a short walk from Rosny Park, where you will find Eastlands shopping centre, cafes, restaurants and all services you could possibly need. Just 10 minutes to the CBD, the property is in close proximity to everything that Hobart has to offer whilst being close to quality schools, beaches, walking tracks and public transport. Offering abundant accommodation, this home has endless opportunities, making it a lifestyle location for now and well into the future.
