

21 Longford Street, Roseville, NSW 2069

Sold House

Thursday, 2 November 2023

21 Longford Street, Roseville, NSW 2069

Bedrooms: 5

Bathrooms: 4

Parkings: 2

Area: 1663 m2

Type: House

James Sutton
0422704370

Cameron Henderson
0407568078

$4,800,000

Situated within a serene, tree-lined thoroughfare, this remarkable abode stands as an unparalleled gem within the esteemed enclave of Roseville. This stately bungalow, constructed entirely of enduring brick, seamlessly amalgamates classical elegance with modern magnificence. - Solid bungalow constructed entirely of brick, featuring elegant timber floorboards- Gourmet kitchen, adorned with stone surfaces, and a freestanding gas cooker- Multiple terraces adorned with the artful HardieDeck Boardwalks & Koi pond- Interior unfolds with a spacious and inviting open plan living and dining area- Awe-inspiring HardieDeck alfresco deck, nestled beneath industrial steel beams- Convenience is at its peak with seamless access to Roseville & Chatswood villages- Immaculately landscaped lawns and gardens sprawl beautifully across the property- Modern polished concrete floors and deluxe master retreat- Formal lounge with fireplace and ducted air conditioning- Unique original sandstone studio/workshed highlighting property's historical character