

21 Matilda Street, Macksville, NSW 2447

Sold House

Wednesday, 22 November 2023

21 Matilda Street, Macksville, NSW 2447

Bedrooms: 2

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 2

Area: 569 m2

Type: House

Corey Wong

Pamela Pearse
0265686605

$613,000

Presenting 21 Matilda Street, a delightful, beautifully cared for 2-bedroom, 1 bathroom cottage, flaunting a wealth of character in the idyllic township of Macksville, a short leisurely stroll from town...On arrival, be captivated by its distinctive classical charm that gracefully embraces natural light complimenting the glowing timber floors. Instilling a lush welcome of meticulous gardens, the interiors exude warmth with a harmonious blend of neutral hues, amplifying its timeless feel with high ceilings, decorative cornicing and wall-mounted picture rails, a testament of the days gone-by. The kitchen and dining are the heart of the home, displaying electric cooking and dishwasher combined with a unique fireplace that retains a wood fueled heater, a distinguishing statement of the room. Further to the two robed and cosy bedrooms is a large rear sunroom offering practical opportunities for the third bedroom, home gym or generous work from home space. Bathed in sun and perfect for hosting outdoor gatherings, or just a soothing spot to unwind, the all-seasons timber deck basks in tranquility promising a private oasis setting with a view over its glorious backyard. Besides from being wonderfully comfortable in feel - matched with cute street appeal, this enchanting property also offers air-conditioning, ceiling fans, garage with joining carport and plenty of under-home storage. Nestled upon 569m² of leafy grounds and gardens, it's set in a highly sought-after street where you'll cherish prime proximity to local schools, hospital, shopping, clubs, transport, riverbanks, and beaches. Coffs Harbour and its airport extends the convenience with an easy 35-minute drive away making this property a solid choice... Your private inspection is highly recommended..!