

21 McLachlan Street, Carisbrook, Vic 3464

House For Sale

Friday, 17 May 2024

21 McLachlan Street, Carisbrook, Vic 3464

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 3

Parkings: 3

Area: 900 m2

Type: House

Kate Ashton

$695,000 - $735,000

Nestled within the Carisbrook community, this property isn't just a house-it's a character-filled home set on approximately 900 m² of residential land. Its double-story design is a testament to custom craftsmanship, with a beautifully landscaped garden enhancing its allure. Step inside to discover a welcoming split-level layout. The lower floor hosts a spacious kitchen, dining, and lounge area, complete with a gas heater, wood fire and a reverse cycle system for comfort. The kitchen is a highlight, featuring a gas cooktop, electric wall oven, dishwasher, and classic timber cabinetry. Adjacent to a bathroom and at the rear of the property is a spacious lounge area with a built-in bar that offers relaxation and entertainment opportunities, complete with heating options for year-round comfort. Ascend the staircase to find the expansive main bedroom with a walk-in robe, ensuite, mezzanine level and private balcony. Three additional bedrooms, one with mezzanine levels and balcony access, await upstairs, along with a well-appointed family bathroom. Outside, the property delights with fenced grounds adorned with fruit trees, offering privacy and natural beauty. A large shed and garage workshop provide ample space for hobbies or storage. Conveniently located near schools and shops, this mudbrick home features striking Bishop windows and doors, creating a unique atmosphere. With essential services connected and modern comforts ensured, this property effortlessly blends rustic charm with contemporary living.