This lovingly renovated 3-bedroom, 1-bathroom haven is a celebration of thoughtful design and practical living. As you approach, the secure parking for 2 cars under cover greets you, ensuring both convenience and peace of mind. The front boundary is adorned with a sturdy fence, enhancing the overall security of the property. Step inside, and you'll be captivated by the warmth and ambiance created by the gas log fire, which beautifully envelops the entire house. Whether it's a chilly winter evening or a breezy summer day, the split system air conditioning ensures you stay comfortable year-round. Costs are kept down by an extensive solar system with 19 panels. The heart of this home lies in its extraordinary kitchen, a testament to the meticulous renovation it has undergone. Picture yourself preparing meals on stunning timber benches, surrounded by modern conveniences and stylish finishes - truly a culinary enthusiast's dream come true. Beyond the interiors, discover the exceptional outdoor spaces designed for entertaining. Whether hosting gatherings or enjoying a quiet moment in the fresh air, the layout of these areas is perfect for creating lasting memories. The mature garden adds a touch of tranquility, and a large shed with concrete foundation which provides ample storage for your outdoor essentials. Security and privacy are paramount, with the front boundary fencing providing a sense of seclusion, and roller shutters for extra insulation, blocking out light and noise for shift workers, or just a bit of extra security. This is a home where you can truly relax and unwind, knowing that every detail has been carefully considered. Don't miss the opportunity to make 21 Moss Street your own.
