Ronak and Mark from Ray White Truganina proudly present 21 Namadgi Crescent, Truganina. Radiating the refined glamour that is synonymous with this luxury and lifestyle inspired architecture, large space and design, this elegant family residence epitomizes everything that is perfect about a Blue-Chip lifestyle. From the sweeping exposed aggregate driveway to the premium craftsmanship and exquisite finishes, this is a home that will capture your heart the instant you step inside. The façade makes a striking statement in the impressive entrance where the future oval right at the front is waiting to provide more appeal. A formal lounge or a study area upon your right while entering. Main living provides a tranquil place to welcome guests, whilst further on an expansive dining zone sets the scene for the grandest dinner parties. Relaxing and entertainment is easy and proud with the covered and extended alfresco. Entertainers and chefs will appreciate the calibre of the kitchen that flaunts expanses of rare laminate, top soft-close cabinetry and high-end appliances - pot drawers and spacious cabinetry, and massive entertainer's island. Afternoon sun illuminates a sublime indoor-outdoor family domain, while upstairs a highly desired, second living zone frames peaceful vistas as the sunsets can be enjoyed to its best beautifully bespoke beyond its ultra-modern facade, every detail has been considered to enhance first-class interiors with quality and style. A sanctuary for all seasons, the perfect layout for modern families or those looking to upgrade. The palatial main bedroom is graced with shower and huge WIR. Packed with features, take advantage of a remote-controlled double garage with internal and external access, separate laundry, ducted heating and a powder room downstairs. Prepare yourself for wide-reaching space, show-stopping style and spectacular outdoor entertaining in this family-focused retreat! Master bedroom with huge WIR and all the other four bedrooms come with their very own BIR.
