Buyers guide $2,500,000

Auction Location: On site A completely rebuilt Victorian farmhouse, transformed into a designer family home, this residence is an 1880s landmark known as 'Nanny Goat Hill'. Set on a 291sqm level block in one of the area's best-regarded streets, it unravels around an internal deck, continuing on to a beautifully curated alfresco area of covered entertaining space, landscaped surrounds and level lawns. With a high-end ambiance throughout, it's a statement house of utmost quality, near the light rail station, Orange Grove Public School, and moments to both Leichhardt and Rozelle village life. Highlights* Original double-fronted facade preserved* Striking contemporary additions/extension* Separate living, dining & family spaces* Stacking doors & indoor/outdoor design* Enclosed central deck, rear alfresco area* Beds w/ BIRs, desk, master WIR & ensuite* Oak floors, split a/c, main bath w/ tub* Fireplace, new kitchen w/ stone benches* Street appeal w/ picket fence, frangipanis* Rear access parking w/ automatic gate
