Situated in a quiet street, only a short walk to all the main street's cafes and restaurants and the island's North facing beaches is this spacious five bedroom, two bathroom family home. Split level in design and spanning over three floors the home features two separate living areas, both with split system heating and cooling. The upper level consists of a spacious and light-filled open-plan kitchen / dining and living area, which opens out to a North facing decking complete with delightful distant bay glimpses. The next level down consists of four generously sized bedrooms with build in robes to three and a walk in robe to one, a family bathroom with bath tub, a separate toilet and a separate laundry. While the ground level features the second living area along with the fifth bedroom with build in robe and an ensuite. The large block has a fully fenced rear yard and offers low maintenance gardens. There is also plenty of room for the parking of boats, caravans etc. This property for rent is proudly offered by Ray white Real Estate Phillip Island.
