Often sought yet rarely found - a prime semi-rural homesite of over quarter of an acre with pristine native bushland as your neighbour! Set within an easy walk of Lobethal's bustling Main Street with its character, charm and cafe culture this 1020 square metre lot features mains water and mains sewer with power close by. Enjoy a stunning bushland setting with superb views over the township of Lobethal and an amazing array of native birdlife for your 'forever' home. As an absolute bonus a prepared homesite has already been cut while Council approval building plans are available to interested purchasers. As rare as 'hens teeth' 21 Post Office Road awaits your perfect home and simply must be seen to be appreciated. Hurry as land like this will not last long!
