Its a great house - spacious light filled and well loved, holding many happy memories... but time creeps up on all of us and looking after such a big place is getting the best of the current owner. Its time to hook up the caravan and move on. That said this is your opportunity to make the most of a well designed Scott Park home in a tightly held peaceful locality and make the perfect place to grow your family. There is easy access to transport routes, Sutherland Park and local shopping precincts. With spacious, rambling living zones inside centring on an enormous well appointed open format kitchen, 4 generous bedrooms all with built ins plus so much covered entertaining space outside, there is plenty of room for everyone to do their own thing in peace and comfort. Resting on 600m of precious land the outdoors features a fully fenced in ground pool, an amazing covered patio, built in barbecue and entertaining area as well as alfresco with recessed blinds there will be summer fun a plenty for the whole family. Its not perfect - you'll want to pull some weeds, tidy the gardens and change some carpets but with that little investment of effort you can reward yourself with a forever home to stand the test of time.
