Basking in sun-kissed sea breezes and stylishly updated with a contemporary interior, this endearing home merges seaside cottage charm with the comfort of modern life. Nestled just 1km from Sutton's Beach and central to major amenities you can move in and enjoy immediate relaxation with added opportunity to expand as desired. White picket fencing, lush greenery and a classic coastal facade cement an inviting welcome with the interior of the home, beautifully upgraded to embrace relaxed contemporary living. Timber-styled flooring underpins a cool palette with open-plan living and dining air-conditioned and a large adjacent study basking in wonderful natural light. Gleaming white cabinetry wraps around the new kitchen with abundant storage on offer as well as stainless appliances and gas cooking. The glass splash back embraces subtle coastal hues whilst pendant lighting adorns expansive stone benches; a spacious breakfast bar including waterfall end. Two bedrooms each have ceiling fans and large windows. They are impeccably serviced by an impressibly upgraded bathroom offering dual vanity, floor to ceiling tiling and large shower with waterfall shower head. Soak in the sea breezes outside and enjoy a slower pace of life with the spacious 536m² block providing plenty of level yard for children and pets as well as a covered gazebo for entertaining. A purpose built garden at the rear has everything you need to enjoy home grown vegetables and fruits whilst the block also lends itself to a future expansion if desired. Additional features include a separate laundry with cabinetry, side access and large detached 9m x 6m shed/garage. Delight in easy living with the sandy shores of Sutton's beach just 1 kilometre away whilst meandering walking tracks can deliver you up and down the coastline to numerous dining and shopping options. Major facilities are also at your door including Redcliffe Hospital and plenty of schooling options whilst bus and transport corridors are ready for those commuting!
