This solid three bedroom brick and tile home is a very short stroll to Banjo's bakery, shops and schools in Margate. It is a sunny and quiet area in a no through road and if you don't have a car it's not a problem as there is public transport very close by. The spacious lounge room has a Jarrahdale wood heater to keep the house toasty warm and the dining family room is also an impressive size. Some new carpets and curtains would certainly give the home an instant facelift. All bedrooms have built in robes and the family bathroom has a separate shower and bath. The toilet is also separate as is the laundry; with easy access out to the clothes line. The level block of approximately 964m² is pretty much a blank canvas with many possibilities. It is only 8 minutes drive to Kingston and less than 25 minutes to Hobart. With the new Margate Shopping centre well under construction, properties like these will become more and more popular. Brookfield Shed is only 2 minutes down the road and you also have the local bowls club and the North West Bay Golf Club too. The property is vacant and ready for it's new owner.
