Explore this original rustic Corndale farmhouse nestled on 120 acres, eagerly awaiting a revival. The timber home showcases two bedrooms with wide floorboards and lofty ceilings, capturing the essence of a bygone era – the ideal foundation for your renovation vision. The separate combined kitchen and dining area invites your creativity. Step onto the open east-facing veranda, gaze over the sprawling expanse, and envision the potential. The property comes complete with a substantial 3-bay colorbond shed with adjoining large undercover area ready for vehicles or machinery. With 120 acres of scrub country, including a permanent creek, this presents a golden opportunity for both investors and aspiring renovators. Just 35 km from the vibrant waves of Byron Bay and a short 40-minute drive from the Ballina airport, seize the opportunity to breathe new life into the farm.
