In an eloquent dance between eras, this beautiful residence honours its historic roots while embracing modernist ideals, forging a rich and remarkable Australian home style. With old world elegance seamlessly blending with contemporary sophistication, admire the Bluestone masonry, marble fireplaces, and high ceilings, as they gracefully coexist with sleek lines, open spaces, and high quality amenities. Featuring an impeccable stone kitchen with a monumental island bench, two separate living zones, and a flawless connection between indoor and outdoor dining areas, it's a testament to the artful balance between traditional and modern living. Three charming bedrooms include a generous main bedroom with an ensuite, with the remaining two serviced by a luxurious family bathroom. Established gardens create a setting imbued with serenity, whilst further comfort is provided by ducted heating, superior storage, and secure off-street parking via rear ROW. Enviably positioned on this prestigious street, it's within walking distance of Camberwell and East Camberwell Station, Camberwell Junction, Camberwell Grammar, Canterbury Girls' Secondary College, parks and the Anniversary Trail.
