Why we like the property" (agent perspective)This beautifully maintained family home is a gem in the heart of Riddells Creek. From its tasteful renovations to its seamless indoor-outdoor living spaces, every aspect has been carefully crafted for quality living. With its convenient location nestled at the foothills of the Macedon Ranges, this property offers the perfect blend of tranquillity and accessibility to amenities."What the property offers" (property perspective>Welcome to your dream family home! Boasting four generous bedrooms, three with built-in robes, including a spacious master with an updated light-filled ensuite, this property has room for the whole family. Enjoy dual living spaces including a formal lounge and dining area, as well as an open plan kitchen, meals, and family area - perfect for entertaining or relaxing. The stunning updated kitchen features a walk-in pantry, quality cabinetry, twin Westinghouse ovens, Miele dishwasher, stone benchtops, and island bench, while the meals area opens directly to the large undercover pergola area with a built-in BBQ, ideal for outdoor gatherings. Additional features such as ornate cornices & ceiling rosettes, ducted vacuum, underfloor slab heating, and multiple split systems ensure comfort and luxury throughout. With a double garage on remote and large updated laundry completing the internal floorplan, this home offers easy living and fuss-free lifestyle."What you love about the property" (vendor perspective>We fell in love with this home the moment we stepped through the door. Its meticulous maintenance and thoughtful renovations make it a joy to live in. From lazy Sundays in the beautiful gardens to entertaining friends and family under the pergola, every moment in this home is special. The location couldn't be more perfect - with everything Riddells Creek has to offer just a short walk away, yet still close enough to Sunbury, Gisborne, and Melbourne CBD for convenience. This isn't just a house, it's a place where memories are made and cherished. Come and experience the lifestyle you truly deserve!
