If you are looking for the best value money can buy – compare this with others in its price range and you'll find this to be super value! It's a great family home with an extra-large master bedroom that has lots of cupboard space and bay windows as features. The kitchen is large with a pantry and plenty of storage, it has a dishwasher as well as a stainless wall oven. So much more can be said about the home, so if you are looking in the price range, you're an investor or any buyer who's looking for a home close to the shops, schools and transport and located in a quiet sort of place out of the pocket of Waterford West.
