Welcome to 21 Trojan Court. A sought-after address in Proserpine, this home is a low-set brick house with three large bedrooms, a two-way bathroom, and a two-car garage. The main bedroom room is spacious with built-in cupboards and is fully air-conditioned. It is located at the front of the home with access to the two-way bathroom and toilet, which is a great feature. Out then into the long hallway with loads of storage space. The other two bedrooms are large with plenty of room for two single beds or king so great for a growing family. The kitchen features solid timber cabinets with a laminate benchtop a large fridge space and lots of cupboard space as well. The second living area is off the kitchen and could be used as a games room or second lounge room this area also leads out onto the undercover outdoor area which is concrete stamped and is very low maintenance. Having beautifully manicured gardens this house has great street appeal with side access out to the back yard this house won't last long get in quick to purchase your slice of paradise.
