Nestled at the very edge of the already wonderfully quiet Stanford Merthyr, with an abundance of natural beauty as its backdrop, this fantastic three-bedroom family home offers everyday comfort and supreme tranquillity in one fantastically pleasant package. It sits right around the corner from local parks and is just a short trip to Kurri Kurri Public School, cafes and eateries, and other CBD amenities. The home opens directly to its light-filled front-facing living area, complete with fireplace, air conditioning, plantation shutters and a raked ceiling. You'll quickly get an idea of the relaxed, comfortable ambiance and bright atmosphere that carries on right throughout the property. The kitchen and dining spaces beyond are equally pleasant, with the kitchen boasting plenty of cabinetry and breakfast seating. Bedrooms are positioned together, appreciating built-in wardrobes and ceiling fans, as well as easy access to the two-piece bathroom with sleek floor-to-ceiling tiling and slow-close shaker cabinetry. Stepping outside, this home serves guests well with its extended pergola-shaded entertaining area, creating a space that is both intimate and relaxing. The backyard is a good size and boasts drive-through side access to the large, detached garage. - Close to the Kurri Kurri Public School, the Kurri Kurri CBD, and walking distance to local parks- Drive-through side access to large, detached garage- Raked ceiling, air conditioning and fireplace to front-facing living area- Plantation throughout shutters allow plenty of natural lighting, great atmosphere- Excellent pergola-shaded entertaining area steps out into big backyard with natural backdrop
