A serene streetscape moments from Edinburgh Gardens provides the perfect backdrop for this Victorian terrace that's set to impress with its versatile double-storey design, first-class features and brilliant outdoor spaces to enjoy. Beyond the gorgeous facade you'll find a welcoming interior showcasing a large upstairs master suite with fully-fitted WIR, deluxe double-vanity ensuite and its own private rooftop deck, as well as two additional bedrooms and equally-stylish main bathroom. Adding to the allure is a versatile open-plan living/dining area with clerestory windows for an abundance of natural light adjoined by a superb stone-bench kitchen with Neff cooking appliances and integrated Bosch dishwasher. Other luxuries of this period prize include hydronic heating and split-system air conditioning, Spotted Gum solid hardwood floors and integrated Bose audio speakers, along with heated towel rails and floor-to-ceiling tiles in both bathrooms. Bi-folds effortlessly connect the living area and private backyard sanctuary complete with large entertaining deck, plus the added advantage of a home office/studio with direct access to the rear ROW. Village cafes, shops and Piedimonte's Supermarket around the corner, along with St Georges Road trams, Inner-Circle Rail Trail, popular schools (Fitzroy North PS and Fitzroy HS) and the convenience of Rushall Station.
