Introduced by a stunning leadlight entrance, this immaculate four bedroom, two bathroom Californian Bungalow, within the Strathmore College school zone, has been meticulously renovated for twenty-first century family living in a thoughtful blend of original features and contemporary sophistication. Beautiful, polished timber floors, high ceilings, panel doors and plantation shutters add to the warm, inviting ambience of this graceful retreat situated in a peaceful, tree-lined street filled with bird life. At the heart of the home is the kitchen/living/dining zone flowing through folding doors to an entertaining deck framed by lawn and lush palms. The dream kitchen boasts a stone island bench with breakfast bar, Smeg cooker, dishwasher, rangehood, glass splashbacks and ample soft-close cabinetry. Complemented by a stylish ensuite, the huge master bedroom offers built-in robes, decorative ceiling and an open fireplace. The other generous bedrooms feature built-in robes and share a tasteful family bathroom. A separate lounge with pretty bay window provides a private relaxation space. Ducted heating, cooling, off-street parking, shed and close proximity to parklands, shops, Glenbervie station, bus and tram transport will impress any buyer.
