

210-226 Algies Road, Belbora, NSW 2422

Livestock For Sale

Friday, 19 January 2024

210-226 Algies Road, Belbora, NSW 2422

Bedrooms: 7

Bathrooms: 3

Parkings: 5

Area: 689 m2

Type: Livestock

Grant Dale
0499199122

James McCowan
0418800400

For Sale

Step into a realm where time slows, and nature's heartbeat resonates through 1,700 acres of a timeless cattle station. Tread lightly, leaving the hustle behind, and let the rugged beauty unfold before you. This isn't just a visit; it's a journey into the heart of a landscape that echoes the enduring spirit of generations. Traverse lush mountainous hills on horseback, where unsung heroes – diligent dogs – work seamlessly to guide speckled park and Shorthorn cattle to fresh pastures. Picture an infinite Green Valley, where plains are adorned with natural springs, water holes, and dams that mimic flowing rivers. This is more than a cattle station; it's a living tapestry, a sanctuary where the land weaves a captivating cycle of life. As cattle graze freely, forging a direct connection from paddock to plate, it's not just agriculture; it's a celebration of sustenance. The vibrant pastures contribute to the exceptional quality of the beef, embodying a commitment to sustainable and responsible farming. Within this rural tapestry lies an invitation – not merely to visit but to claim your private retreat. Nestled amidst the protection of the vast valley, rolling hills, and flowing springs, this isn't just a scenic backdrop; it's the expansive canvas upon which you can craft your family's history. Leave your shoes at the front gate and step into a world where the rhythm of nature sets the pace for your own timeless journey.