Ever dreamed of owning acreage within an 8 minute drive to the boat ramp? A block that's 21.7 hectares in size (53 acres approx) has not been improved and full of tall native timbers ready for you to create your very own masterpiece. Well dream no more as this is for you! Nature Lovers will just love this one as this rural property presents a great opportunity ideally located just eight (8) minutes from the local boat ramp and Dundee Lodge. A very private bush setting with great tall timber is perfect for those who want privacy, seclusion and the ability to enjoy being at one with nature. Various native species of trees and shrubs are abundant throughout the property along with various bird life and native animals that have made the property their home and it has been virtually left untouched with the exception of fire breaks and some fencing. A property of this size and at this price? You'll need to get moving as this dream is about to become a reality. Call or text George on 0438004800 to arrange a viewing!
