Located in the ever popular CIRRUS building, this beautiful north facing water view apartment is in a 'As New' condition and its ready for you to move in NOW! Don't miss this opportunity, it's so rare to be found in the market! There are not many properties in Canberra enjoy a panoramic, secured water view like this one. This apartment is within the ever popular CIRRUS tower at the door step of Westfield Shopping Town. Perfect for both home buyers and investors. Within walking distance to the central business district of Belconnen, cafes, restaurants and bars, the Bus Interchange is right next to the building providing cheap, reliable public transport for busy people. It is only a 5 minute drive to the AIS, Calvary hospital, University of Canberra, Radford College and surrounding schools. Canberra City CBD and The Australian National University are a minute or two more on the bus. CIRRUS owners and guests can enjoy the private full lap swimming pool, and the private gym with water view. Floor to ceiling windows afford excellent lake views and the well-appointed kitchen with European appliances opens up to a spacious living area for great interaction with family and guests.
