Brought to life by an inspired collaboration between the award-winning Ellenberg Fraser architects and Urban Inc, this sleek and sophisticated two bedroom 'Oxley' apartment has been thoughtfully crafted for an authentic connection to its historically significant surrounds within Collingwood's Fay & Gibson precinct. Barely 4kms from the CBD, the apartment is presented as new, offering access to wonderful amenities including a rooftop swimming pool with communal entertaining and superbly landscaped gardens. • Open-plan living is underpinned by a premium kitchen with stone benches, stainless steel appliances and plenty of cabinetry. • Seamlessly, the open-plan flows to a balcony with a terrific urban outlook. • The main bedroom enjoys its own attractive ensuite that is themed to the main bathroom. • Each of the bedrooms features custom built-in robes. • Split system heating and air conditioning. • Secure, basement parking is a huge bonus in this thriving location. • A storage unit above the car space. • Rooftop swimming pool with adjacent entertaining area. • Soothing, landscaped communal gardens. • Walk to Smith Street, the best of Collingwood and Fitzroy. • Moments from the CBD.
