The Burswood Peninsula has fast become one of Perth's most sought-after residential areas being only a short 5km from the Perth CBD. Home to a vibrant community and diverse mix of luxury residences along with some of the state's biggest attractions, including the Crown precinct, with premium dining and entertainment experiences, Optus Stadium, Matagarup Bridge, Stadium Parklands and the stunning Swan River. Neighbouring Ador is Burswood Park, one of Perth's most cherished recreational spaces, expands 56-hectares along the river foreshore. This magnificent parkland features some of Perth's most spectacular floral displays, shady tree-lined picnic spots and numerous active and passive play areas. Nothing but the best for Ador Residents

The Sky Lounge on the eighth floor will delight with an intimate wine lounge and sumptuous private dining room extending to the sky terrace featuring BBQ facilities, outdoor dining and yoga lawn. All carefully considered to maximise opportunity for a stunning westerly aspect. Ador's luxury amenity doesn't stop at the Sky Lounge, with an inviting pool and beautiful landscaped gardens situated on the ground floor. This amenity is a reminder of the beauty that surrounds you with sweeping vistas across parklands to the river and city beyond. Sit back, relax and soak up the view as you watch the passing parade of boats navigate the glass-like river.
