Set within the privacy of natural cleared bushland leading to the untouched rugged coastline, this property is a haven for birdlife, wombats and wallabies. Adjacent to a wildlife corridor and only metres to the ocean, 21384 Tasman Hwy, Four Mile Creek has long been a haven for artists and nature lovers. Your own sculpture garden greets you as you retreat from Tasman Hwy into your private sanctuary spread over 3.2 acres. Embracing parklands, dunes and the beauty of the raw coastline, this property is an artwork of design. Flair and whim inspire every creation; from the genius of the outdoor rooms to the efficiency of the thermal floors. Whilst the exterior of the home steals your heart and imagination, the interior of the home is a vibrant reflection of the creative within. Large open living areas are the heart of the home and with paved flooring throughout, the heating and cooling efficiencies of the home are maximised. The kitchen is lavish in size and enjoys ocean views, yet it's the enormous pantry that will have you begging for more. The living areas open directly to a large east facing deck overlooking tranquil gardens and outdoor rooms before leading to the master bedroom. The master boasts a large walk in robe as well as a full size ensuite. With two additional bedrooms, bathroom and internal laundry, the home is reflective of its creative heart and age whilst offering a very spacious floor plan. And if you're looking for even more, the annexe studio has to seal the deal! With pot belly stove, power and running water, the studio is a versatile space to add even more amenity to the home. There are also additional outbuildings. Ideally located between St Helens, St Marys and Bicheno, this Four Mile Creek home is an eclectic home by the ocean with so much potential. You can wake up to the sounds of crashing waves every day - don't dream about it any longer, make the move to Four Mile Creek today! Please note that two working days notice are required before any inspection. PROPERTY INFORMATION: Land size: 13200m², 3.2 acres Building size: 129m² + studio Built: 1995 Zoning: Landscape conservation Water supply: Tank (24,000 litres for consumption) Septic Tank Harcourts St Helens has no reason to doubt the accuracy of the information in this document which has been sourced from means which are considered reliable, however we cannot guarantee accuracy.
