Smack bang in the middle of the CBD at Melbourne Central this 2 bedroom opportunity exists for the astute investor or owner occupier. Bring your paint brush and some elbow grease and turn this ugly duckling into a beautiful swan! Well priced and ready to sell, the vendor is reasonable in their expectations and is after someone who can bring this spacious property back to life. Consisting of 2 bedrooms, one with a full wall of windows looking over the nearby laneway and the other smaller but still able to house a bed and has a robe available. With a large open plan living space and kitchen, the apartment is extremely functional and lends itself to someone who can fulfil the vision of what this property could be moving forward. Tightly held and close to everything Melbourne has to offer, this property comes furnished and ready to move into or rent out!
