A great opportunity presents to secure 25 fertile acres in a central location privately located in the hinterland of Terranora whilst enjoying close proximity to Tweed Coast beaches and the Gold Coast with beautiful views towards Kingscliff & surrounds. This property enjoys a level house pad with an array of established fruit trees and vegetable gardens close to the sealed access road McAuleys Road and the bus to the door, The solid era home features 5 bedrooms, one bathroom and multiple living areas with a huge basement to cellar your wine. There is also a couple more suitable house pads that with council approval would be perfect place to take advantage of the views and build your dream home and or put some cabins to host Tourist accommodation subject to council approval. The property boasts an easy access track down to the bottom of the property where there is a large open farm style shed and a massive dam with another two smaller dams one spring fed, the bottom of the property has Tweed river frontage and would be a perfect location for aqua culture and or to dig another large dam or run water reliant crops.
