Presenting an exquisite haven of comfort, seclusion, and convenience, this exceptional brand-new home occupies a prime location in the heart of Keysborough. Seamlessly blending modern appeal with functionality, this contemporary residence is tailored for first-time buyers, growing families, and those seeking to downsize without compromising quality. Crafted by the esteemed CHT Architects and constructed by Hamilton Marino, every aspect of this home reflects meticulous attention to detail. The complex boasts an array of stunning communal spaces and striking landscaping, creating a vibrantly natural sanctuary to be cherished for years. Upon arrival, a spacious front courtyard patio welcomes you, offering an ideal setting for alfresco dining and relaxation. Entering the home, you're greeted by a warm ambience complemented by neutral wide board flooring and abundant natural light, highlighting its remarkable layout. The impressive stone kitchen takes centre stage, featuring ample cupboard and bench space, top-tier stainless-steel appliances, and a glass splashback, seamlessly flowing into the open-plan dining and living area adorned with chic window furnishings. The generously proportioned, light-filled bedrooms are adorned with mirrored built-in robes and plush carpets, serviced by a central tiled bathroom featuring a shower, sleek vanity and toilet. The master bedroom boasts a mirrored built-in robe and ensuite with the same quality finishes. To ensure the utmost peace of mind and comfort, the home has multiple split-system heating and cooling units, a European laundry, ample storage solutions, intercom access, a rear outdoor patio, and two side-by-side car spaces. With an array of amenities just steps away, the cosmopolitan feel and lifestyle surrounding Chapel Park are truly unmatched. Situated across from Keysborough South Shopping Centre and within moments of Keysborough Golf Club and Edithvale Beach via Springvale Road. Positioned within an excellent school zone, it's a short stroll to Keysborough Garden Primary School and just minutes from Haileybury, Sirius, and Lighthouse Colleges. For effortless commuting, the Eastlink Freeway is nearby for weekday city access, while the Peninsula Link offers the perfect weekend escape.
