Brighton Botanical flaunts iconic style and bespoke luxury in a highly desirable location in the heart of Bay side's most fashionable lifestyle precinct. Bruce Henderson Architects and Jack Merlo Design have come together to create a landmark building in spectacular garden surrounds only steps to Bay Street's boutique shopping, gourmet eateries, Coles supermarket, cinema and city train. This one bedroom apartment is designed to entertain. Naturally stunning, epicurean kitchen is the focal point of exceptional living space with state of art Miele appliances and stone & timber finishes. The Architect's commitment to detail is further showcased in a fully tiled bathroom featuring locally made, hand blown glass pendants and Italian, custom black, powder coated tap ware. A rare lifestyle tenancy with two common areas for additional relaxation space and entertaining, including a light filled Resident's lounge with fireplace. Lush Jack Merlo gardens are visible from every aspect with over 41 species richly layered in seasonal shades providing an ever-changing backdrop to tranquil living. A host of other luxuries include spacious balconies, security, video intercom, lift access, basement parking and storage cage.
