Desirably positioned just metres to Richmond's premier park, Barkly Gardens, this totally captivating double fronted Victorian residence's brilliantly renovated and extended dimensions cater to every modern family requirement from working from home to relaxed indoor-outdoor living and entertaining. Behind the glorious block-fronted exterior, the wide arched hall with its high ceilings and oak floors introduces an expansive living room with a gas log fire and an evocative dining area opening completely through bi-fold doors to a stunning west-facing outdoor oasis with BBQ deck and secure off-street parking via the side lane. The sensational gourmet kitchen appointed with Neff appliances, integrated fridge/freezer, stone benches and a fabulous breakfast bar/servery connects to the courtyard for effortless entertaining. There are three downstairs double bedrooms with robes and a stylish bathroom while the lavish main bedroom suite upstairs comprises designer bathroom, walk in robe, expansive retreat with gas pebble fire and a large west-facing sundeck offering city views. Idyllically positioned to enjoy an array of Richmond restaurants, bars and cafes, trams to the MCG, tennis centre and CBD and Burnley station, it includes hydronic heating, RC/air-conditioning, ceiling fans, powder-room, laundry and storage.
