Not just the average two-bedroom apartment – this light-filled residence on level 2 of Reynolds Gardens adds some exclusive detail to assure you of glamorous airy living and low maintenance freedom. With a European style terrace overlooking Anderson Park and the soccer fields, it's a beautiful outlook from apartment 219, which has you on the doorstep of The Pines Shopping Centre and The Cherry Hill Tavern. At approx. internal size of 98.9 sqms (10.6 squares), the stylish open plan setting offers seamless indoor-outdoor connection between the living room and tiled balcony – the perfect space for a BBQ, egg chair or a cute café setting for an al fresco breakfast. Polished porcelain tiling in the bathrooms and an elegant stone waterfall bench in the kitchen define the premium appointments, with Bosch appliances, Daikin split system heating cooling, Roman blinds and golden floating floors adding to the top tier fit out. A spacious study nook with parkland views makes for the perfect remote working space or fitness corner, as part of the master bedroom and its ensuite and walk-in-robe. The second bathroom is adjacent to the versatile home office/bedroom space which gives you flexibility for guests, storage or as a 2nd living area. It's an exciting opening at the low rise 2015-built Reynolds Gardens, nestled amid flowering Crepe Myrtles and among the suburb's treasured parklands, shopping centres, primary and secondary schools, and numerous bus services. There's a secure car space and storage cage, but you could get by without a car from this walker's paradise in the coveted Doncaster East Hills.
